

BIOGRAPHIES

MARK TRAVIS
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER
TRANSFIRST

Mark Travis joined TransFirst as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer in October 2001. In this role, he is responsible for the financial management of the company including reporting to the company's owners, managing external and internal financial reporting and financial decision support to its business units. In addition, Travis manages the reporting and relationships with the company's lenders, banking requirements and manages its relationships with its bank sponsors into the Card Associations.

Travis has more than 25 years experience in financial management. Prior to joining TransFirst, he served as part of Electronic Data Systems' CFO group for more than 18 years. He served in a number of senior financial roles including assignments as Assistant Corporate Controller and Chief Financial Officer for EDS's business in Asia Pacific for five years, based in Hong Kong. In addition, he held the senior financial role for the company's business in Australia / New Zealand, the Health Care business and the company's business in North and South America. Travis has more than eight years international business experience including driving the financial establishment of the company's operations in six new countries including the formation of six joint ventures.

Travis, who completed his CMA Certification in 1991, earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Texas at Austin and a master's degree in finance from the University of North Texas in Denton. He has served as a mentor for the Dallas Mentium Program, was a member of the University of North Texas Accounting Advisory Board and currently is a member of the Advisory Board of the CFO Roundtable at the University of Texas at Dallas.